

Interfaith Rally for Abortion Rights and Religious Freedom

Thursday, July 28 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Boca Raton

2601 St. Andrews Blvd.
Boca Raton, FL 33434
uufbr.org

- Learn about Rabbi Barry Silver's lawsuit opposing Florida's newly-enacted abortion restrictions that deny religious freedom to Jews and other faiths that support abortion rights and the right to privacy.
- Hear from the growing number of faith leaders and others joining Rabbi Silver's lawsuit, as well as those adding their voices to the imperative to strike down newly-enacted abortion restrictions in Florida and throughout the nation.

"Our support for abortion rights and the right to privacy is rooted in our Principles and reflects a moral commitment to the idea that reproductive care is healthcare and is essential to the well-being of individuals and families."

Rev. Dr. Susan Frederick-Gray
President of the Unitarian Universalist Association
