

Peace Plan For Israel and Palestine Endorsed

By Jewish, Muslim and Christian Religious Leaders

A bold, new peace proposal is endorsed by leaders of the three Abrahamic faiths, Judaism, Islam and Christianity, as well as the Palm Beach Chapter of the Temple of Understanding. These leaders include Rabbi Barry Silver, Shaikh Shafayat Mohamed and Pastor Fritz Aufdencamp and enjoys good Karma from Buddhist leader Maya Malay. These leaders support this plan for long-awaited peace for Israel and Palestine, with its Druze, Bedouin, Arab, Christian, Muslim and Jewish inhabitants.

The biographies of these religious leaders are attached, and the Palm Beach County Chapter of the Temple of Understanding is the local branch of an organization founded over 60 years ago by Judith Hollister along with the leaders of many of the major religions of the world, including Rabbi Samuel Silver, who is the father of Rabbi Barry Silver. The Temple of Understanding enjoys NGO status with the United Nations, was endorsed by Eleanor Roosevelt, and was the dream of Biblical prophets and idealists and visionaries of all spiritual traditions and backgrounds throughout history who dreamed of international peace and harmony.

The attached peace proposal provides for a Palestinian state on the West Bank once the Palestinians in that region recognize Israel's right to exist. This could happen tomorrow if the Palestinians of the West Bank recognize Israel as the Jewish homeland, which they have done de facto for decades. Under this plan, Jerusalem would become the capital of both states and Israel and the newly formed Palestinian state would announce to the world that Jerusalem is now truly, as its name implies, a City of Peace, and shall be a showcase for reconciliation and peace among all the peoples of the Earth, including former adversaries.

Under this plan, Hamas would have no future, as peace cannot exist with terrorists whose charter explicitly rejects peace, negotiations and compromise and which seeks the destruction of Israel and death for all Jews. Under this peace plan, once Hamas is out of the picture, the Palestinians of Gaza would be free to govern themselves with Israel continuing to oversee its security interests in the region until the Palestinians of Gaza renounce violence, lay down their weapons and recognize Israel's right to exist. At that time, Israel would continue to help sustain the people of Gaza with food, medical care, power, and financial assistance as they have done since 2005 when Israel departed Gaza and left it to the Palestinians, and would join an international effort to rebuild Gaza and to make it a tourist Mecca.
